

RURAL DELTANA FIRE PROTECTION DISTRICT, INC.
and
FORT GREELY FIRE DEPARTMENT

AGREEMENT FOR MUTUAL AID FIRE PROTECTION

The agreement, entered into this 6 day of SEP 1990, between the Secretary of the Army action according to the authority of Section 1856, title 42, United States Code and the Rural Deltana Fire Protection District (RDFFPD) is to secure for each the benefits of mutual aid in fire prevention, the protection of life and property from fire, and firefighting. It is agreed that:

- a. On request to a representative of the Fort Greely Fire Department by a representative of the RDFFPD, firefighting equipment and personnel of the Fort Greely Fire Department will be dispatched to any point within the area for which the RDFFPD normally provides fire protection as designated by the representative of the RDFFPD.
- b. On request to a representative of the RDFFPD by a representative of the Fort Greely Fire Department, firefighting equipment and personnel of the Rural Deltana Fire Protection District will be dispatched to any point within the area for which the Fort Greely Fire Department normally provides fire protection as designated by the representative of the Fort Greely Fire Department.
- c. Any dispatch of equipment and personnel pursuant to this agreement is subject to the following conditions:
 - (1) Any request for aid under this agreement will include a statement of the amount and type of equipment and personnel requested, and will specify the location to which the equipment and personnel are to be dispatched; however, the amount and type of equipment and number of personnel to be furnished will be determined by a representative of the responding organization.
 - (2) The responding organization will report to the officer in charge of the requesting organization at the location to which the equipment is dispatched, and will be subject to the orders of that official.
 - (3) A responding organization will be released by the requesting organization when the services of the responding organization are no longer required, or when the responding organization is needed within the area for which it normally provides protection.

(4) If a crash of aircraft owned or operated by the United States or military aircraft of any foreign nation occurs within the area for which the RDFPD normally provides fire protection, the Chief of the FtGFD or his or her representative shall assume full command on arrival at the scene of the crash.

d. Each party will waive all claims against every other party for compensation of any loss, damage, injury or death occurring as a consequence of the performance of this agreement except those claims authorized under Title 15, United States Code, Section 2210.

e. Title 15, United States Code, Section 2210, governs compensations to municipalities for direct cost and losses sustained while fighting fires on federal property.

f. All equipment used by the RDFPD in carrying out this agreement will at the time of action hereunder, be owned by the RDFPD; and all personnel acting for the RDFPD under this agreement will, at the time of such action, be an employee or volunteer member of the RDFPD.
